WEEKLY DIARY FOR NEW IMMIGRANTS

יומן שבועי לעולה תשפ"ב 2022-2021

"...ואשוא אתכם על פנפי נשרים ואבא אתכם אליו" (שמות י"ט, ד')

Foreward and Greetings from the Ministry of Aliyah and Integration

Rosh HaShana Eve, 5782

Dear Immigrants,

We are happy to present you the “Weekly Diary for New Immigrants,” for the Hebrew year 5782.

This diary is based on the Hebrew calendar, and integrated with a standard calendar, and contains a rich variety of excerpts from Jewish and Israeli history, surveying more than 100 years of Zionism and highlighting Jewish culture and heritage. There are also explanations of Jewish holidays and Israeli national days, as well as entries on Zionism, the Holocaust, the establishment of the State, Israel’s wars, and aliyah. It contains information about prominent personalities from Jewish and Israeli history including leaders, writers, opinion makers, prime ministers, and presidents. These are just a few among many important individuals, too many to include in this limited space.

Additionally, we’ve included milestones along the path of the Jewish People and State, along with information about absorption procedures and important reminders about necessary steps for you and your family. Although the material is brief in format, it is designed to serve as another source of information alongside the additional sources available to you, and outlined in the diary.

We sincerely hope this diary, which is especially for you in English, will serve you on a daily basis, and that you will use it as an additional source of handy and accessible information about the milestones of the Jewish People and the milestones of your absorption.

Best wishes for a happy New Year and successful absorption in Israel.

Sincerely,
The Ministry of Aliyah and Integration

Symbol, Anthem and Flag

The National Anthem, National Symbol and the National Flag of Israel are all expressions of the independent State.

The State Symbol is an officially identifying sign. The Symbol consists of the seven-branched menorah, modeled after the menorah used in the Temple and representing light. On either side are olive branches, symbolizing the yearning for peace. The Symbol appears on the edifices of official institutions, on documents, and on the currency. The Symbol is protected by law from violation.

Israel’s national anthem is Hatikva, written by Naftali Hertz Imbar. It is the national song of the State, and the verses express the hope of the Jewish People to return to Zion as a free people in our own land of Israel.

Kol od balevav penima
Nefesh yehudi homiya
Ulefatey mizrach kadima
Ayin letzion tzofiya.

כל עוד בלבב פנימה
נפש יהודי הומיה
ולפאתי מזרח קדימה
עין לציון צופיה.

Od lo avda tikvatenu
Hatikvah bat shnot alpayim
Lihiyot am chofshi be’artzeynu
Eretz Zion Ve Yerushalayim.

עוד לא אבדה תקוותנו
התקנה בת שנות אלפים
להיות עם חפשי בארצנו
ארץ ציון וירושלים.

The National Flag has two blue stripes on a white background with a Star of David in the center. The stripes are based on the tallit, and the Star of David is an ancient Jewish symbol. The Flag is used as a national symbol, and is protected by law from violation. It was designed by David Wolfson during the First Zionist Congress in 1897.

Rosh HaShana, the start of the Jewish calendar year, is two days of prayer and repentance. Customs of the holiday include blowing the shofar in recollection of the giving of the Torah to the Jewish People, the longing for redemption, and the ingathering of the exiles. There are special prayers for the holiday; people exchange wishes for a good year and confirmation in the "Book of Life," and eat apples with honey. The Fast of Gedalia commemorates the murder of Gedalia Ben Achikam, appointed Governor by the Babylonians, and the leader of the few surviving Jews in Jerusalem following the destruction of the first Temple. Following his death, the last Jews departed the Land of Israel.

Tishrei is the first month of the Hebrew calendar, and is in the autumn. Its Zodiac sign is Libra. According to the original Hebrew calendar, Nisan was the first month, the New Year for pilgrimages and for kings, and Tishrei was the seventh month. We wish you a happy new year and an easy and successful absorption in Israel. Yom Kippur, which many call “the Sabbath of Sabbaths,” is the holiest day of the Jewish People. It is a fast day commanded by the Torah, and the only fast so important that it is not deferred even for Shabbat. On Yom Kippur, we ask for forgiveness for transgressions both against other people and against the Lord. Yom Kippur begins with the Kol Nidre service on Yom Kippur Eve, and concludes with “Neilah” prayers and the blowing of the shofar.

The Days of Awe, also known as the 10 Days of Repentance, is the period between Rosh HaShana and Yom Kippur dedicated to personal stocktaking and asking forgiveness both for transgressions between individuals, and for transgressions against the Lord. The Yom Kippur War broke out on the afternoon of Yom Kippur, Oct. 6 1973, with coordinated attacks by both Egypt and Syria. The IDF responded militarily, and following fierce battles, took the offensive stance and bravely pushed back the enemy.

Saharana is a traditional holiday celebrated by Kurdish and Persian Jews during the intermediate days of Sukkot. During the 1970's, the custom of hikes and excursions to celebrate nature became popular. The three pilgrimage festivals are Passover, Shavuot, and Sukkot, three days during which the Torah commands Jews to visit the Temple in Jerusalem. Sukkot, one of the three pilgrimage festivals (Passover, Shavuot, Sukkot) is also called 'the Harvest Festival.' Sukkot derives its name from the huts the Israelites lived in during their sojourn in the wilderness following departure from Egypt. Customs of the holiday include eating and sleeping in the sukkah, and blessings over the Four Species that symbolize the unity of the Jewish People; the etrog (citron), lulav (palm branch), hadas (myrtle), and arava (willow). Note that there is no public reception at Ministry of Aliyah and Integration offices throughout the holiday and offices are closed.

Shmini Atzeret/Simchat Torah on Kaf Bet Tishrei, is the eighth day following the seven days of Sukkot. This day is also Simchat Torah, celebrating the conclusion of the cycle of Torah readings with the final portion of the Book of Deuteronomy, and the beginning the new cycle with the first portion of the Book of Genesis. On Simchat Torah, synagogues organize "hakafot;" dancing and singing with Torah scrolls. Outside of Israel, Shmini Atzeret is celebrated on Kaf Bet Tishrei, and Simchat Torah on the following day.

Cheshvan is the second month of the Hebrew calendar. It was originally called Marcheshvan. It is in the autumn; its Zodiac sign is Scorpio. Data on immigration to Israel: Between the months of Tishrei 5780 and Tishrei 5782 (October 2019 - October 2021), about 44,000 new immigrants immigrated to Israel. About 33,000 (75%) of them immigrated during the Corona virus pandemic period. About 55% of the new immigrants came from Eastern Europe (of which about 14,700 came from Russia and about 6,100 from Ukraine), about 29% immigrated from Western Europe and North America and about 2,500 came from Ethiopia.

Rechavam Ze'evi (Ghandi) (1926-2001) was a military figure, politician, and lover of literature. He was born in Jerusalem in 1926. In 1944, he joined the Palmach. During the War of Independence, he served in the "Yiftach" division as an intelligence officer, and as Commander of the Central Region and Advisor to the Prime Minister on terror and intelligence. He was the director of the Eretz Yisrael Museum in Tel Aviv, Chairman of the Moledet party, and a member of Knesset. He served as Minister Without Portfolio as well as Minister of Tourism. Three Palestinian terrorists murdered him on the morning of Tuesday, October 17, Lamed Tishrei, 5761.

Aliyah Day is on Zayin Cheshvan, the week of the Torah portion Lech Lecha, which relates how our forefather Abraham was commanded to journey to the land that was designated for him, the land of Canaan. Aliyah Day was enshrined in law by the Knesset in 2016 as an annual day marking the importance of aliyah as the basis of the State's foundation, development, and shaping of a multi-cultural society. The day is observed in the Knesset, by the government, the President's bureau, the education system, the IDF, and the Police, and with additional activities initiated by the Ministry of Aliyah and Integration.

Waves of aliyah from the former Soviet Union: 32 years since the beginning of the wave of aliyah from the former Soviet Union. Since 1989 more than one million and one hundred and forty thousand new immigrants made aliyah from the former USSR. Approximately 76% arrived from Russia, Ukraine, and Belarus (from among 15 countries); 56% of the immigrants reside in the north and south of the country. The main absorbing cities are Haifa, Netanya, Ashdod, Tel Aviv-Yafo, Bat Yam, Beer Sheva, Rishon LeTzion, Petach Tikva, Ashkelon, Holon and Jerusalem.

Sarah Aaronsohn (1890-1917) was born in Zichron Ya'akov. She was a leading member of the underground "Nili" ("Netzach Yisrael Lo Yishaker") spy ring that aided the British against the ruling Ottoman Turks in Palestine during the First World War. In 1917, the Turks uncovered the Nili's activities and arrested several members including Sarah Aaronsohn. She was tortured but managed not to reveal any information before she had the opportunity to shoot herself. She died on Kaf Zayin Tishrei, 5677 and is known as a "Heroine of Israel."

Yitzchak Rabin (1922-1995) Prime Minister of Israel, was murdered on November 4, 1995 by a Jewish assassin. The anniversary of his death (Yud Bet Cheshvan) is a national memorial day during which public discussions take place about the meaning of political murder in a democracy. Yitzchak Rabin served as IDF Chief of Staff during the Six-Day War, Ambassador to the United States, and as a Government minister. As Prime Minister, he signed a peace treaty with Jordan, and received the Nobel Peace Prize.

Chaim Weizmann (1874-1952) was the first President of the State of Israel and one of the key leaders of the Zionist movement. Born in Belarus and a chemist by profession, Dr. Weizmann was a diplomat and helped bring about the Balfour Declaration. He was one of the founders of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem, and in 1920 was chosen as the head of the Zionist Union. He died in Rehovot, where he is buried in the garden of his home. The presidential complex is named for him, as well as a zoo, the Weizmann Institute of Science, and other institutions.

Israel and Jordan signed a peace treaty on 26/10/1994 in the presence of US President Bill Clinton and Jordan's King Hussein. Signatories include Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin and Jordanian Prime Minister El Majali. New-Immigrant Registration in a Health Fund: the Ministry of Aliyah and Integration offers new immigrants the option of registration in the health fund of their choice upon arrival at Ben Gurion Airport, where they may indicate their preferred health fund. This service is in addition to the option of registering at a Postal Bank or at the Bituach Leumi (also in their website).

Kislev is the third month of the Hebrew calendar and is in autumn-winter. Its Zodiac sign is Sagittarius. Sigd is a traditional holiday of Ethiopian Jews, signifying their Zionist aspirations. Sigd occurs 7 weeks after Yom Kippur. According to tradition, Sigd commemorates both the giving of the Torah, and the communal gatherings held in Jerusalem during the days of the prophets Ezra and Nehemiah. David Ben Gurion (1886-1973) was the State of Israel's first Prime Minister and Minister of Defense. He proclaimed the establishment of the independent State on Hay Iyar, 5708 (14/5/1948) and was one of the most prominent leaders of the Zionist and Poalim movements. He was considered the architect of the State's establishment and of the Israel Defense Forces as a people's army. He believed that the foundations of Israel's independence are nationhood, morality, and military strength. Upon retirement, he moved to Kibbutz Sde Boker in the Negev, where he passed away and is buried.

Golda Meir (1898-1978) was the first and only woman to serve as Prime Minister of Israel. Born in Ukraine, she grew up in Milwaukee and came to Eretz Yisrael in 1921. She was active in the Histadrut, the Jewish Agency, and the Labor Party and played a role in the struggle for independence and in aliyah. She was also active as an emissary for the State; in 1948, she became Israel's first ambassador to the Soviet Union. As a member of the Knesset, she served as Minister of Labor and Minister of Foreign Affairs. She died on December 8, 1978.

Gender is a term used to indicate the roles of men and women within the family, in employment, and in society, as opposed to biological characteristics differentiating between genders. Two days in Israel and other parts of the world are dedicated to placing gender equality on the public agenda: International Women's Day on March 8 and the International Day for Elimination of Violence Against Women on November 25.

Yigal Bashan (1950-2018) was an Israeli singer, composer, and actor. He won numerous prizes, among them the Acum prize for lifetime achievement. He was born in Israel to immigrant parents from Yemin, and from a young age showed an outstanding musical talent. He starred as a soloist in the Northern Command band and appeared in song festivals, shows, films, and the "Hoppa Hey Trio." Among his well-known hits are "Yesh Le Tzipur Katana BeLev," "Hoppa Hey," "Sivan," and "Shemayim."

Hanukkah, established by Chazal over 2000 years ago, commemorates the victory of the Maccabees over the Syrian Greeks in the year 3622 (164 B.C.E). Following that victory, the Maccabees purified and rededicated the Temple. The last remaining undefiled oil, enough for one day only, miraculously burned for eight days. Candles are lit during each of the eight days of Hanukkah to commemorate the miracle. Customs include special songs and foods, including jelly donuts and potato pancakes. The Ministry of Aliyah and Integration website: www.klita.gov.il

Hannah Szenes (1921-1944) was a soldier, paratrooper, and poet. Born in Hungary, she immigrated to Eretz Yisrael in 1939. She volunteered for the British army and joined a paratroopers division. In 1944, she parachuted near the Hungarian border and was executed by Hungarian soldiers. She is known for her poem "A Walk to Caesarea." Kaf Tet November, 1947 is the day that a special United Nations session elected to end the British Mandate in Palestine and partition the land into 2 independent states, one Jewish and one Arab. The War of Independence broke out the following day.

The International Day for the Struggle Against Human Trafficking, a phenomenon of the modern age, is on December 2. Human trafficking entails the importation of people from countries of distress for the purposes of prostitution, forced labor, or sexual exploitation. It usually involves harsh conditions of violence, threats, lack of medical care, forced labor, and limited freedom. In 2003, Israel passed legislation to prevent human trafficking. The struggle strives towards law enforcement, protection of victims, and preventative measures.

The Commemoration Day of the Departure and Expulsion of Jews from Arab Countries and Iran takes place on November 30, in close proximity to Kaf Tet B'November. The day was legislated in 2014; among its aims are recognition of the heritage and cultural background of Jews from Arab countries and Iran and the circumstances of the departure and expulsion of Jews from these lands. It also aims to illustrate their arrival and absorption in Israel, and to maintain their rights to compensation as Jewish refugees from Arab countries and Iran within the framework of peace negotiations.

The Rambam, Rav Moshe Ben Maimon (1135-1204) also known as Maimonides, was one of the greatest spiritual leaders and teachers of the Jewish people. Born in Spain, his family suffered persecution and fled to Morocco. Later he moved to Egypt and became personal physician to the sultan. His works "The Mishne Torah," and "The Guide for the Perplexed," are two of Judaism's fundamental texts. He passed away in Cairo on Kaf Tevet, 1204, and is buried in Tiberias.

Tevet is the fourth month of the Hebrew calendar, and is in mid-winter. Its Zodiac sign is Capricorn. Rashi, Rabbi Shlomo Ben Yitzhak (1040-1105) is one of the most important commentators on both Written and Oral Law. He lived in France during the 11th century, and his concise, exact commentaries have become an integral part of Jewish texts. He even created new words, such as "havlaga," (restraint). He was a modest person, and when he could not explain something, he wrote "I do not know the meaning."

The Fast of the Tenth of Tevet, a day of mourning, marks the beginning of the Babylonian king Nebuchadnezzar's siege of Jerusalem in the year 588 BCE, which led to the destruction of the First Temple two and a half years later. The Chief Rabbinate designated this date as a national day of mourning (Yom HaKadish HaClali) upon which Kaddish is recited for Holocaust victims whose date of death is unknown. Eliezer Ben Yehuda (1858-1922) a Hebrew writer and journalist, was responsible for the restoration of Hebrew as a spoken language and its evolution into a modern tongue. He immigrated to Eretz Yisrael in 1881, and was the first to teach his family to speak Hebrew exclusively. He believed in Hebrew as the national language, despite the opposition of members of the Old Yishuv. He devoted his life to ensuring the spread of Hebrew and its instruction in schools. He developed new words and adapted old ones, as well as edited dictionaries. He died in Jerusalem on Kaf Yav Kislev 1922.

Yuri Stern (1949-2007) was a Member of Knesset, Deputy Minister, an aliyah activist, a professor of economics, and founder of the Zionist Forum. He was born in Moscow. In 1981 he made aliyah following a struggle for the freedom to emigrate and freedom of religion for the Jews of the Soviet Union. In 1996 he was elected to the Knesset and was active in immigrant absorption, environmental issues, and social justice. Since the year 2009, the Ministry of Aliyah and Integration "Minister of Aliyah and Integration's Prize to Artists" to immigrants who excel in artistic and cultural endeavors is in Yuri Stern's name.

The "Egoz" smuggled 44 Jews out of Morocco in 1961. All passengers were drowned when the ship foundered in a storm but the sinking focused attention on the plight of Moroccan Jewry. Following international pressure, the Jews were finally permitted to leave. In 1992, the remains of 22 of the Egoz's victims were brought to Israel for burial. The 23rd of Tevet, 5721, the date of the sinking, is a national commemorative day for the North African Underground movement. Rabbi Yosef Mashash (1892-1974) was a judge, arbitrator of Jewish law, and public figure. Born in Meknes, Morocco, he was appointed the Chief Sephardi Rabbi for the city of Tlemcen, Algeria at the age of 31, and served for 17 years. He was honored by the king of Morocco, and this status helped him improve the situation of the Jews. He immigrated to Israel in 1978 and settled in Haifa, acting as that city's Sephardi chief rabbi until his death. He was a distinctive authority on Halacha and authored 48 books, including "Questions and Respona on Living Water."

Farida Aklum (1949-2009) was an educator and school principal in Ethiopia, and one of the most prominent figures in the Ethiopian Jewish community, known as "the man who broke through the gates of aliyah to Israel through Sudan." In 1977 he assisted in the aliyah operation of some 200 Jews as part of a secret weapons agreement between the Israeli and Ethiopian governments. Upon exposure of the agreement, he fled to Sudan, contacted representatives of ORT, and together with intelligence bodies helped to formulate aliyah arrangements for Ethiopian Jews via Sudan.

Aliyah from Ethiopia – the community consists of approximately 156,000 individuals, about 40% born in Israel. During Operation Moses (1984) approximately 8,000 Ethiopian Jews were airlifted to Israel via Sudan and Europe. In Operation Solomon (1991) 14,400 Ethiopian Jews arrived via airlift. Over 60% of the community is below the age of 30, 95% percent reside in permanent housing, 2/3 has settled in the Gush Dan and Shfela regions and 4,000 immigrants are academics, and close to 65% are entitled to matriculate. The percentage of Ethiopian immigrants recruited into IDF combat units is the highest among any immigrant group.

The Knesset, the State of Israel's House of Representatives, has 120 members who are chosen in democratic elections and represent all Israeli citizens. The main task of the Knesset is to draft legislation for all aspects of life. The Knesset oversees the work of the Government, elects the President and the State Comptroller, and deliberates issues on its daily agenda. The Knesset Plenum is the central Knesset body and the Knesset's highest authority, within which take place debates and votes. The Knesset is in Jerusalem.

Tu B'Shvat is the 'New Year of Trees,' during which tree-plantings take place throughout the country. It is customary to eat both dried and fresh seasonal fruit grown in the Land of Israel. Tu B'Shvat is also the anniversary of the founding of the Knesset. The Ministry of Aliyah and Integration website is in English, Russian, French, Spanish, Amharic and Hebrew: www.klita.gov.il. Recipients of an allowance from the National Insurance Institute should be sure to update the Institute if there is any change in family status.

International Holocaust Remembrance Day - on January 27, 1945, Allied forces liberated Auschwitz. In 2005, the UN General Assembly, at the initiative of the Government of Israel, declared this date an official Memorial Day for international commemoration of Holocaust victims. This decision was unanimously accepted and on the initiative of the Government of Israel. The Ministry of Aliyah and Integration website: www.klita.gov.il

Eli Wiesel (1928-2016) was an author, journalist, philosopher, Holocaust survivor and winner of the Nobel Peace Prize. Born in Romania to a Hassidic family, in 1944 he was deported along with his family to Auschwitz. He lost his parents, brother, and sister during the Holocaust, following which he resided in an orphanage in France. He studied philosophy at the Sorbonne and during the 1960s he lived in the United States. Wiesel devoted himself to perpetuating the memory of the Holocaust and wrote hundreds of articles and books. Time Magazine chose him as one of the 100 most influential people in the world.

Adar Aleph is the extra month of the Hebrew calendar during a leap year. It is in winter. Its Zodiac sign is Pisces. A leap year is a year in which one month is added. This month is called Adar Aleph. The Hebrew calendar is based on a combination of lunar year and solar year. Because a lunar year is 11 days shorter than a solar year, which determines the seasons, and in the Jewish tradition Passover should fall in the spring (as well as the other holidays in their season), we add one month once every few years.

Henrietta Szold (1860-1945) was an educator, writer, Zionist activist, and founder and head of the Youth Aliyah organization. Through Youth Aliyah's efforts between 1934 and 1939, approximately 50,000 children and teenagers were rescued from Europe and brought to Eretz Yisrael. Waves of aliyah, from 1989 to the present, have brought more than one million, three hundred thousand new immigrants to Israel. Operation Ezra and Nechemia in 1950-51 airlifted some 120,000 Iraqi Jews, almost the entire Jewish population, to Israel via Iran and Cyprus. The operation was one of a series of rescue missions undertaken following the establishment of the State. Until that time, the Iraqi government prohibited aliyah, Zionism was illegal, and members of the Zionist underground were persecuted. In March, 1950, the Iraqi government allowed the Jews to leave on condition that they renounce their citizenship and leave behind their property.

The Yachin Operation was a mission that brought the Jews of Morocco to Israel ('aliyah gimmel') that took place during 1961-1964. During the operation approximately 80,000 Moroccan Jews came to Israel, more than half of the Moroccan-Jewish population. It was conducted with the secret consent of the King Hassan II of Morocco, who permitted the Jews to leave on condition that their declared destination was not Israel and that the body organizing their emigration was not a Zionist organization. The operation was conducted by the Jewish-American HIAS organization.

Operation "On Eagles Wings" in 1949 brought 50,000 Jews from Yemen to Israel. They were airlifted from Aden to Israel in one of a series of rescue operations of endangered Jews in Arab countries following the establishment of the State. The mission is also popularly known as "Operation Magic Carpet," as well as by the name "Operation Messiah's Coming." The name of the operation is from the Biblical passage, "... and I will bear you on the wings of eagles and I will bring you to me..." Exodus, 19:4. International Women's Day is marked in Israel and internationally on March 8. The day is devoted to measuring the integration and achievements of women in the economy, in politics, and in society. On March 8, 1857, working women in the textile factories of New York first went on strike to protest their conditions, and on March 8 1908, 15,000 women marched in New York to demand suffrage, a shorter working day, and a reasonable wage. In December 1977 the United Nations decided to devote this date to the rights of women.

The War of Independence broke out at the end of November, 1947, following the United Nations decision to partition Mandatory Palestine into 2 states. The Arab nations opposed partition and the establishment of a Jewish state, and attacked transportation routes and Jewish settlements. On May 15, 1948, at the conclusion of the British Mandate, one day following the declaration of Statehood, the armies of Egypt, Jordan, Syria, Iraq, and Lebanon attacked the new State of Israel. The war ended in 1949 with victory for the Israel Defense Forces and with the enlargement of the State beyond the original partition borders.

The National Memorial Ceremony for Israeli Soldiers, whose burial place is unknown takes place on Zayin Adar. The day is traditionally believed to be the date of both the birth and death of Moses, whose burial place is unknown. The National Ceremony to Mark the Liberation of Eilat takes place on Tet Adar, and commemorates Operation Uvda to liberate Eilat on 10/3/1949. This operation symbolized the conclusion of the War of Independence by raising the Israeli flag at Um Rashrash on the shore of the Gulf of Eilat.

Purim celebrates the rescue of the Jews of the Persian Empire from extermination. The holiday is named for the lots (pur) cast by Haman in order to determine the date on which the Jews were to be killed. Purim customs include reading the Book of Esther, gifts of food (mishloach manot), charity to the needy, parties, costumes, and festive meals. The Fast of Esther on the day preceding Purim commemorates the fast decreed by Queen Esther and Mordechai in hope of annulling Haman's decree.

Josef Trumpledor (1880-1920) was one of the founders of the Zion Mule Corps during Russo-Japanese War I. He immigrated to Eretz Yisrael following service in the Russian Army, during which he lost his left arm. He was killed on Yud Aleph Adar, 1920, while defending Tel Hai from Arab attack. The battle became a symbol of valor and defense of the homeland. The Beitar movement and Kibbutz Tel Yosef were named in his memory, and many people visit Tel Hai and other memorials on the anniversary of his death.

The poetess Rachel (1890-1931) was born in Russia and immigrated to Eretz Yisrael in 1909. She joined Kibbutz Kinneret and worked in agriculture. There she met Zalman Shazar, who became Israel's President, and dedicated a series of love poems to him. In 1913, she went to study agriculture and painting in France. She went to Russia in 1919, and then returned to Kibbutz Degania. She fell ill with tuberculosis and left the kibbutz to live in isolation. Her poems speak of disappointed love, loneliness, and a devotion to nature and the Land of Israel. Her poetry remains popular to this day, and many of her works have been set to music.

Nisan is the seventh month of the Hebrew calendar and is in the spring. Its Zodiac sign is Aries. Nisan is also known as "the first month" since it is the month of the Exodus from Egypt. The Egyptian-Israeli peace treaty was signed on the White House Lawn on 26/3/1979. Signatories include Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin, Egyptian President Anwar Sadat, and US President Jimmy Carter. In this historic moment, the leaders called for "...no more war, no more bloodshed, and no more tears." The Jewish bookshelf contains the fundamentals of Judaism forming the cornerstone of our faith: the Tanach, the Oral Torah, the Siddur, and various compilations of prayers. "Tanach" is the acronym formed by the first letters of 'Torah,' 'Nevi'im' (prophets), and 'Ketuvim' (writings), 24 holy books of the Jewish People and the basis of our national culture. The Torah outlines the 613 Commandments given to the Jewish People at Mount Sinai. Nevi'im tells of entering the Land of Israel, and Ketuvim contains the Book of Proverbs, the Book of Psalms, and the Megillot.

Passover, the first of the three pilgrimage festivals, recalls the Exodus from Egypt. On the night of the Seder, families gather around the table and read the Haggadah, eat symbolic foods such as matzah and bitter herbs, and drink four cups of wine. The main mitzva of the holiday is the prohibition against eating leavened bread. Before the holiday begins, all leavened foods are disposed of, after which is the ceremonial "Search for Leaven" (Bedikat Chometz). Any leaven found is burned. The intermediate days between the first and last festival days are "Chol HaMoed."

The management and staff of the Ministry of Aliyah and Integration wish you a happy and kosher Passover, and an easy and successful absorption. Note that during the holiday and intermediate festival days, the Ministry is closed to the public, along with most other Government ministries and public institutions. Reminders will appear in the press. The Ministry of Aliyah and Integration website: www.klita.gov.il Telephone Information Center: (03) 9733333 | *2994

Mimouna, a traditional holiday of Moroccan Jewry, takes place on Isru Chag of the last day of Passover. Many attribute the holiday to the death of the Rabbi Maimon, the Rambam's father, on this date. "Mimouna" is derived from the Hebrew word "emunah" (faith); tradition holds that the Jewish people will be redeemed on this date. The day is celebrated with parties, feasting, and hospitality; today in Israel people of many backgrounds celebrate the day.

Iyar is the eighth month of the Hebrew calendar and is in the spring. Its Zodiac sign is Taurus. Rabbi Menachem Mendel Taub (1923-2019), the Admor of Kaliv, was born in Transylvania. During the Holocaust he lost all of his siblings, and he himself survived following numerous tortures. In 1963 he made aliyah and reestablished the Kaliv Hassidic movement, first in Rishon LeTzion and then in Bnai Brak. He devoted his life to memorializing the Holocaust among the Haredi community, and passed away close to Holocaust Remembrance Day.

Holocaust Heroes and Martyrs Remembrance Day memorializes the six million Jews who perished during the Holocaust. Occurring on Kaf Zayin Nisan, the anniversary of the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising, the day is marked by memorial ceremonies in public and educational institutions including a national ceremony at Yad Vashem, by sirens, and a moment of silence. Yom HaAtzma'ut, Israel's Independence Day, takes place on Hay Iyar, the anniversary of David Ben Gurion's declaration of an independent State on May 14, 1948. The day begins with an official ceremony and torch lighting on Mt. Herzl. Yom HaAtzma'ut is an official day off work during which people attend official ceremonies and recite special prayers, the President's Residence hosts a reception, and the Israel Prize ceremony takes place.

Yom HaZicharon for Israel's Fallen Soldiers and Victims of Enemy Actions takes place on Daled Iyar, and honors the memory of Israel's fallen soldiers and victims of enemy actions. The day is marked with a siren, a National Memorial Ceremony at the Western Wall and ceremonies at military cemeteries, and in civic, public, and educational institutions. Zelda, Sheyna Zeld Shneersohn-Moshovsky (1914-1984) was a poet, artist, educator, and winner of the Brenner prize, a creative prize for Hebrew authors, and the Bialik Prize for Beautiful Literature. Born in Ukraine to a family of Chabad Hassidim, she was a cousin to the Lubavitcher Rebbe. She made aliyah to Jerusalem at the age of 11 with her family. Her art combines faith and openness to the wider world, and she wrote 7 books of poetry, which are written in a free style and inspired by Hasidism. The best-known of her poems is "Every Person has a Name."

Victory over Nazi Germany Day is on the 9th of May. It honors the veterans that fought during the Second World War, commemorates the allied victory over the Nazi German forces, and the German signing of documents of surrender. Thousands of Jewish men and women fought in the Red Army and contributed to the historic and fateful battles that saved the Jewish People. Many were decorated for valor and have since made aliyah. The Ministry of Aliyah and Integration website: www.klita.gov.il

Lag B'Omer, Yud Chet Iyar, is the 33rd day of the Counting of the Omer, which begins on Passover. It is a festive day, unlike the days of mourning preceding it. Both children and adults celebrate around festive bonfires to commemorate those lit by Bar Kochba's soldiers following victory over Roman troops. On Mt. Meron is arranged the yom hilula at the grave of Rabbi Shimon Bar Yochai, on Lag B'Omer, which is the day he passed away. Telephone information center in different languages: *2994 | (03) 9733333

Rabbi Shimon Bar Yochai (Rashbi) was a famous 1st-century Tannaic sage, a student of Rabbi Akiva, and teacher of Rabbi Yehuda HaNasi. He was born in the Galilee in the 2nd century BCE. He was sentenced to death for opposing Roman rule in Eretz Yisrael, which forced Jews to convert. He managed to escape and hid with his son Rabbi Eliezar for 13 years in a cave in Peki'in, where they studied Torah. The Kabbalistic book "The Zohar," is attributed to him. He founded a beth midrash near Meron. His death is commemorated on Mt. Meron, on Lag B'Omer.

Sivan is the ninth month of the Hebrew calendar and is in the spring. Its Zodiac sign is Gemini. Israel Houses are meeting places and centers of information and support for returning. Israelis residing abroad who plan to return to Israel. Israel Houses are operated through Israeli ambassadors overseas as a project of the Ministry of Aliyah and Integration. There are 15 Israel Houses overseas that offer cultural and social activities that reinforce Jewish and Israeli identity as well as information to help plan returning to Israel.

International Diversity Day is on May 21 and was declared by the United Nations as a day to mark the importance of cultural diversity. The State of Israel is blessed with a wide variety of cultures and populations, and among the challenges of this diversity is to promote dialogue between different groups and to promote diversity in employment in order to achieve positive results among workers in the areas of creativity, problem-solving and openness to change.

Jerusalem Day, Kaf Chet Iyar, commemorates the reunification of Jerusalem during the 1967 Six Day War. Following the war, the Knesset approved legislation to reunite the city, and declared freedom of religion and access to holy places for all faiths. In 1998, the Knesset ratified "Jerusalem Liberation Day" and declared Kaf Chet Iyar a national holiday. Scores of visitors throng the city on Jerusalem Day, and there is a special celebratory prayer service at the Western Wall. International No-Smoking Day was declared by the World Health Organization in an effort to raise awareness of the hazards of smoking, and place the issue on the world agenda. The day also aims to reinforce efforts to prevent smoking-related deaths. According to WHO statistics, there is a worrying increase in the use of tobacco among women and young girls. Each year 5 million people die because of smoking; it is the primary cause of preventable death in modern society.

Shavuot, also called the "Time of the Giving of the Torah," and "The Festival of the First Fruits," "the Feast of Weeks," and "the Harvest Festival," commemorates the giving of the Torah at Mount Sinai as well as the traditional pilgrimage to Jerusalem to bring first crops to the Temple. On Shavuot the Book of Ruth is read, which relates the story of Ruth the Moabitess, who converted to Judaism and became the ancestress of King David. It is customary to eat dairy foods, wear white clothing, and study Torah throughout the night.

Rabbi Yehuda Halevy (1075-1141) was one of the foremost poets and philosophers of the medieval period. Born in Tudela, Spain, he composed both sacred and secular poetry influenced in style by Arabic literature. He is best known for composing the "Kuzari" in which he defends Judaism before Khazars, Christians, and Moslems. It was his belief that religious fulfillment could be attained only by settling in the Land of Israel, which would bring forth the Redemption, and he himself immigrated. However, he was unable to realize his dream and died in Egypt.

The Six-Day War broke out on June 5, 1967 between Israel, Egypt, Jordan, and Syria following enemy threats against Israel. Egypt closed off the Suez Canal and the Straits of Tiran to Israeli shipping, the UN withdrew its peacekeeping force from the Gaza Strip, and Egypt amassed 800 tanks in the Sinai desert. Israel was victorious on all fronts, and within 6 days achieved a spectacular military success. Jerusalem was united, and the Golan Heights, the Jordan Valley, Judea and Samaria, the Gaza Strip, and the Sinai were in Israeli hands.

Dona Gracia (1510-1569) was a leader, politician, and philanthropist. She was born in Portugal to a family of anusim (forced converts) who fled Spain. One of the richest Jewish women in Europe during the 16th century, she donated funds to Jewish communities in northern Italy and the Ottoman Empire. In 1561 Sultan Suleiman I granted her a lease on the city of Tiberias in order to turn it into the center of Jewish settlement. She died before being able to move to the Land of Israel. Her name is commemorated on a postage stamp and on streets in Israel.

Naomi Shemer (1930-2004) was born in Kvutzat Kinneret, and was a gifted composer, poet, and national songwriter. She wrote and composed songs for military ensembles, for choral groups, and for the most gifted artists. In 1983, she received the Israel Prize, and during her career she received four honorary doctorate degrees. Her songs were about love, hope, loss, and prayers for peace, and have become cultural treasures of Israeli song. One of the highlights of her career was the song "Jerusalem of Gold" which became an anthem following the Six Day War.

Operation Yonatan (Operation Entebbe) was an IDF operation to rescue Israeli hostages in Entebbe, Uganda. In June, 1976, during a flight from Ben Gurion airport to Paris, Palestinian and German hijackers hijacked an Air France flight. Lt. Colonel Yoni Netanyahu, commander of an elite Commando Unit headed the rescue operation, which was joined by soldiers from Golani and Paratroops brigades. During the operation, they penetrated the Entebbe Airport terminal, killed the terrorists, and returned the hostages to Israel. Yoni Netanyahu and 3 hostages were killed during the operation.

Prisoner of Zion is the title given to citizens and residents of Israel imprisoned or persecuted because of Zionist activities in countries that forbid such activities, or for being Jewish in a country hostile to Israel. In accordance with the "Law for Compensation of Prisoners of Zion," the Ministry of Aliyah and Integration operates the Authority for Prisoners of Zion, which implements committees that evaluate applications for recognition as a Prisoner of Zion. The Ministry holds an annual national ceremony to mark "Prisoners of Zion Day." The Ministry of Aliyah and Integration website: www.klita.gov.il

Benjamin Ze'ev Herzl (1860-1904) was a journalist, advocate, and writer. He founded the Zionist Movement and envisioned a Jewish State. Following the Dreyfus Affair, he concluded that the Jewish people required an independent state of their own. He detailed the Zionist vision in his book "The Jewish State," and in 1897, headed the first Zionist Congress in Basle. He is famous for saying, "If you will it, it is no dream." In 1949, his coffin was brought to Israel and reinterred on Mt. Herzl in Jerusalem.

The Fast of the Seventeenth of Tammuz is a national day of mourning marking the breach in Jerusalem's walls by the Roman emperor Titus. This fast is one of four associated with the destruction of the Temple. The Three Weeks are the period of mourning between the 17th of Tammuz and the fast of the 9th of Av, during which the destruction of both Temples is recalled, as well as other catastrophes. There are no weddings or similar celebrations, and other mourning customs are observed.

Av is the eleventh month of the year. It is also called "Menachem Av," and is in midsummer. Its Zodiac sign is Leo. The Oral Torah consists of the laws and statutes set down by the Sages of Israel, which were handed down over generations until codified in writing. The Oral Torah includes the Mishna, which consists of 63 tractates codifying Jewish Law and prepared by Rabbi Yehuda HaNasi, and the Talmud (Gemara) which consists of discussions and commentaries on the laws of the Mishna compiled by rabbinic commentators. The Talmud also includes the daily and holiday prayer books.

Ze'ev Jabotinsky (1880-1940) was a Zionist leader, writer, and journalist, and originated the idea of establishing a Jewish Legion to fight alongside the British against the Ottoman Turks during World War I. In 1925, he founded the Revisionist movement and became the head of the Beitar movement. He believed that the goal of Zionism should be the establishment of a Jewish State on both sides of the Jordan River. In 1935, he resigned from the Zionist Congress and formed a new Zionist union. He passed away in New York in 1964, and is buried in Jerusalem's Mount Herzl cemetery.

Rabbi Yisrael Ben Eliezar, the Baal Shem Tov (1700-1760) often referred to as the Besht, was a charismatic religious figure and the founder of the Eastern-European Hassidic movement during the 18th century. Born in Ukraine, among his many roles was as a healer and performer of wonders. His main role was the founder of Hasidism, which nurtured an innocent faith, the centrality of prayer, adherence to G-d, and the spiritual ability to always remain optimistic and trust in the future. "Shivchei HaBesht" is a collection of stories about his life and works.

Rabbi David Buzaglo (1903-1975) was a teacher, Torah scholar, composer, poet, and greatest cantor among Moroccan Jewry during the 20th century. Born in Morocco, he advanced the study of the Hebrew language. He composed hundreds of liturgical verses, and his poetry was popular among both Jews and Arabs. At the age of 40 he became blind. As a fervent Zionist he made liyah in 1965. Here he revived the culture of liturgical verse and songs of supplication, and composed numerous songs about the Land of Israel.

Tu B'Av, "The Day of Dancing," is known in modern times as Israel's 'Holiday of Love.' "...There were no holidays so joyous for the Jewish People as the Fifteenth of Av (and Yom Kippur) for on those days, daughters of Yerushalayim would go out dressed in borrowed white clothing and dance in the vineyards located on the outskirts of the city." Mishnah, Masechet Ta'anit, daled, chet. Today this holiday symbolizes the settlement of the Land of Israel and the mixing of the tribes and ranks of the Jewish people. Celebrations and dance festivals take place throughout the country.

The Ninth of Av is a day of fasting and mourning in memory of the destruction of both Temples, the First in 586 BCE and the Second in 70 CE. It is customary to recite The Book of Eicha, a special liturgy of lamentations for the Temple and the dispersion of the Jewish people. Mourning customs are observed and special lamentations are recited in synagogues and at the Kotel, while restaurants and places of entertainment are closed. Shabbat is a day of rest, sanctity, and respite from labor. The source of Shabbat is the Book of Genesis, which tells that the Lord rested on the seventh day following six days of creation. Shabbat is an expression of social equality in that it pertains to every person. Candles are lit before sunset, and Kiddush is recited on Shabbat eve. The Havdalah ceremony concludes Shabbat and symbolizes the transition from the holy to the mundane. Many of the world's peoples have adopted the idea of the Sabbath as a weekly day of rest.

Saul Tchernichovsky (1875-1943) was a doctor, translator, and notable Hebrew poet. He was born in Ukraine, and learned Hebrew and Torah. His first book was published in 1898. He studied medicine in Germany and Switzerland, and was an outstanding military doctor during WWI. In 1931, he was invited to edit a book of medical and natural sciences, and settled in Eretz Yisrael. He was a member of the "Committee of the Hebrew Language," and the "Writers Association." His poetry merged Jewish heritage with world cultures.

Slichot, prayers are recited during the month of Elul, which concludes the Jewish year. Elul is a month of introspection and repentance of the year's errors, and spiritual preparation for the New Year. Slichot prayers begin the day after Rosh Chodesh Elul for Sephardic Jews, and from the Saturday night before Rosh HaShana for Ashkenazi Jews, continuing until Yom Kippur. These prayers include requests for mercy and forgiveness of transgressions, and expressions of regret for past errors.

Second day of Rosh Chodesh Elul

the Ministry of Aliyah and Integration

Elul is the 12th month of the Hebrew calendar and the final month of the year. It is at the end of summer, and its Zodiac sign is Virgo. Elul is the month of atonement, forgiveness, and preparation for the Days of Awe. According to Jewish sources, Elul stands for "Ani LeDodi VeDodi Li" (I am my beloved's and my beloved is mine). Learning Hebrew is a vital factor for success in employment and Israeli society. Eligibility for studies has been extended to 10 years of receiving immigrant status or eligibility as an immigrant and in accordance with the budget.

The Jewish life cycle includes ceremonies for each stage of life from birth to the age of mitzvot, marriage, and passing. The Brit Milah ceremony, on the 8th day from the birth of a boy, symbolizes the covenant between G-d and the Jewish People, which has been passed down through the generations. At the age of 13, a boy becomes Bar Mitzva and is considered to have passed from childhood to maturity. He is responsible for fulfilling all commandments from that age, including putting on Tefillin, participating in a prayer minyan, and being called to the Torah. Girls are deemed Bat Mitzva at the age of 12.

The Patriarchs and Matriarchs, Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, Rebecca, Jacob, Rachel and Leah, are the three generations of the biological and spiritual ancestors of the Jewish People. Their stories are told in the Book of Genesis and form the religious and national foundations of Judaism, the main tenets of which are belief in one G-d and the centrality of the Land of Israel. The Matriarchs and Patriarchs are buried in the Cave of the Patriarchs in Hebron, except for Rachel, who is buried in Bethlehem. Rabbi Avraham Yitzchak HaCohen Kook (1865-1935) was the first Ashkenazi Chief Rabbi, and considered one of the most important Torah commentators of recent generations. He was appointed Chief Rabbi in 1921. He believed that the Zionist pioneers, and the Zionist movement, were the beginning of the Jewish People's redemption. Rav Kook founded the Chief Rabbinate and wrote numerous books on Jewish law and ethics that emphasize Jewish unity, love of Torah, and love of the Land of Israel. He passed away on Gimmel Elul, 5695.

The President of Israel is the Head of State. The President's task is representative and symbolic, and the responsibilities are ceremonial. The President symbolizes the accepted social norms of Israeli society that have a broad consensus, and the connection between the country's citizens. The President is elected for a 7-year term by secret ballot among a majority of Knesset members. The position obligates the President to abide by the governmental system, and prevents the expression of any opinion on disputed political, diplomatic, or social issues. The title of President, "nasi" in Hebrew, was held by the Head of the Sanhedrin, the highest religious judicial body during the time of the Second Temple.

Chuppah, kiddushin, and Nisuin constitute the three stages of the marriage ceremony. It is usual for the ceremony to be performed by a rabbi underneath the chuppah, during which the couple become husband and wife according to law. Seven blessings are recited, and the groom gives the bride a marriage contract (ketubah), which outlines and safeguards the bride's rights. Mourning customs include a funeral, the Kaddish prayer, and seven mourning days during which the immediate family members of the deceased sit at home and receive those that come to comfort them.

Tishrei is the first month of the Hebrew calendar, and is in the autumn. Its Zodiac sign is Libra. Rosh HaShana, the start of the Jewish calendar year. Customs of the holiday include blowing the shofar in recollection of the giving of the Torah to the Jewish People, the longing for redemption and the ingathering of the exiles. In Rosh Hashana people exchange wishes for a good year and confirmation in the "Book of Life," and eat apples with honey. The Ministry of Aliyah wishes you a happy new year and successful absorption in Israel.
