If such difficulty arises, the Parties will make every effort to discuss the matter promptly. In case of perishable goods, technical level discussions between relevant officials will be held within three working days.

2. If no mutually agreed solution is reached, the Parties shall consider setting up an ad-hoc working group, composed of officials from relevant ministries.

ARTICLE 7

Further Liberalisation

The Parties undertake to continue their efforts with a view to achieving further liberalisation of their trade in agricultural products, taking account of the pattern of such trade between them, the particular sensitivities of such products and the development of agricultural policy on either side.

ARTICLE 8

Entry into Force and Relationship between this Agreement and the Free Trade Agreement

1. This Agreement shall enter into force on the first day of the third month after the Parties have exchanged their instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval.

2. This Agreement shall remain in force between the Parties as long as the Free Trade Agreement remains in force between them.

3. The Depositary of the Free Trade Agreement shall receive a copy of this Agreement and the instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval of this Agreement for information.
